

NEW RESIDENTS GUIDE

WELCOME TO CESSNOCK CITY

CESSNOCK
CITY COUNCIL

Cessnock City Council acknowledges within its local government area boundaries are the traditional lands of the Wonnarua people, the Awabakal people and the Darkinjung people. We acknowledge these Aboriginal peoples as the traditional custodians of the land on which our offices and operations are located and pay our respects to Elders past, present and future. We also acknowledge all other Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who now live within the Cessnock LGA.

WELCOME

We get that moving to a new area can be a little overwhelming, so we hope this guide makes your transition to the Cessnock Local Government Area (LGA) a whole lot easier.

Just 120 kilometres north of Sydney and 40 kilometres west of Newcastle, the Cessnock LGA covers 1,966 square kilometres within the beautiful Hunter Valley NSW.

Our region is home to close to 59,101 residents and the towns and villages within it are sustained by a diverse business environment with a backdrop of our famous wine and tourism industry.

The Hunter Valley is Australia's oldest wine producing region with around 4,500 acres under vine and the wine tourism industry is worth an estimated $521 million.

Close to major roads, including the M1 and Hunter Expressway, Cessnock is well situated for access into the Port of Newcastle and the Newcastle Airport.

Cessnock's natural environment has large expanses of untouched natural scenery bounded by National Parks and State Forests. The rural landscape is dominant, with uninterrupted grazing and pastoral lands. We're home to many fine heritage structures and have an emerging cultural precinct, with the Cessnock Performing Arts Centre being centrally located.

Cessnock City is an area of great social, cultural and spiritual importance to the people of the Wonnarua Nation and neighbouring Nations of Awabakal and Darkinjung, and within the LGA boundaries there are many significant Aboriginal sites.

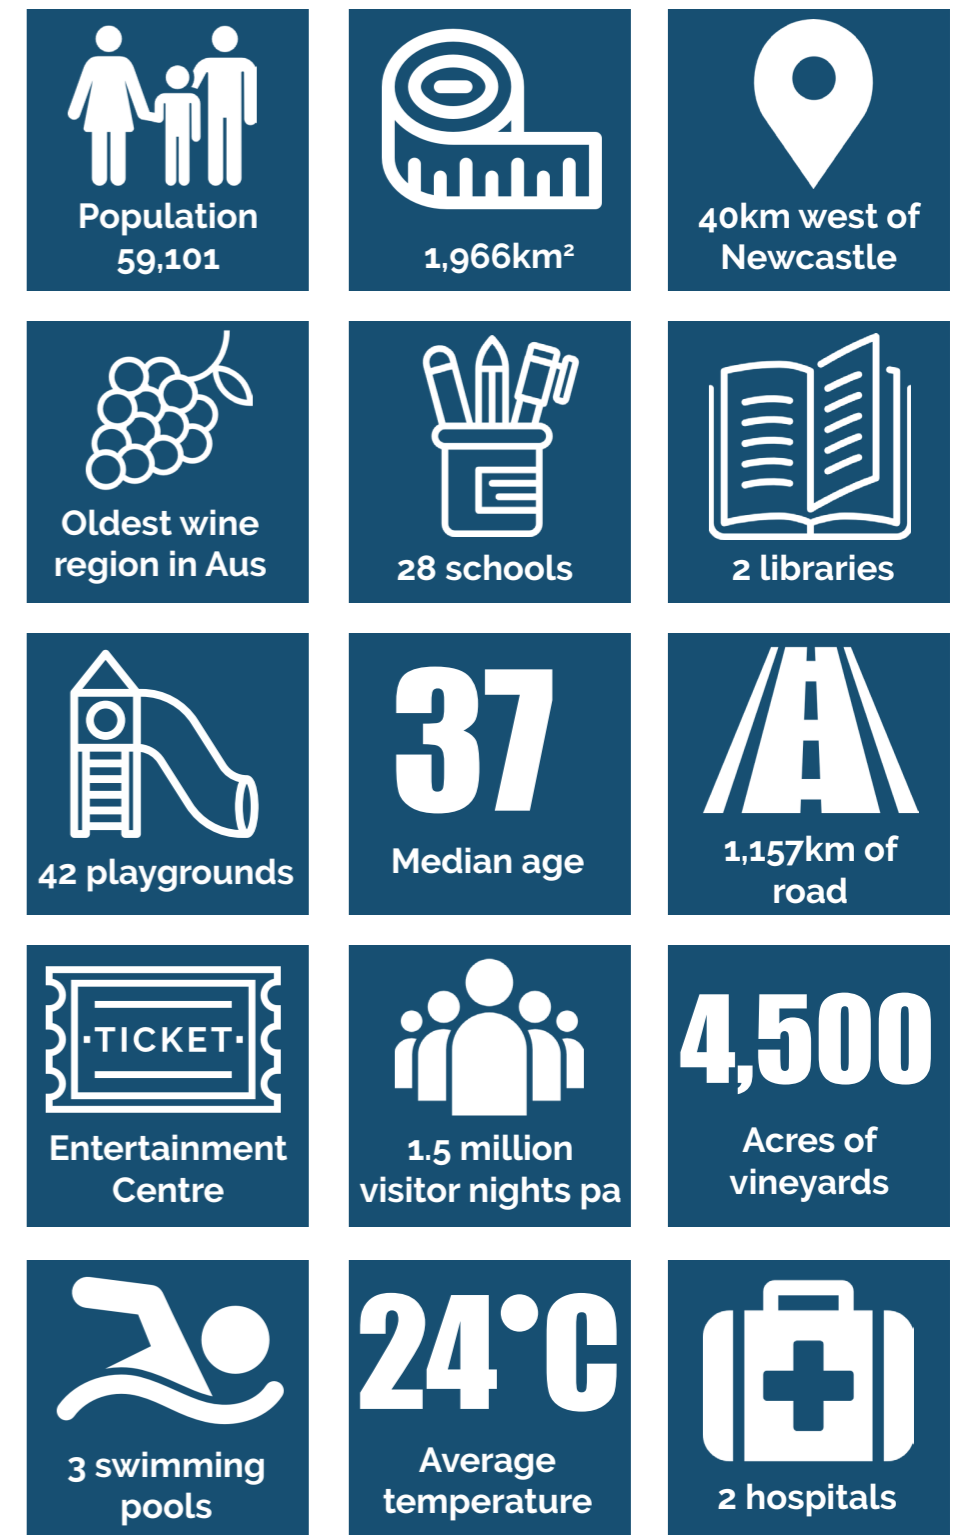

We're a vibrant and growing region and always welcome new residents with a friendly smile.

SNAPSHOT

MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

Cessnock City Mayor Councillor Bob Pynsent

As Mayor of the Cessnock City, I like to ensure our community is welcoming and friendly. I live in the Cessnock LGA because I love the sense of place and pride in community that is endemic to Cessnock.

I'm enormously proud to have seen Cessnock evolve from a series of coal mining villages into an exciting city at the center of the Hunter Valley. You may be familiar with our region's renowned wine legacy and the legendary hospitality of our vineyards and resorts.

We boast a rich hinterland of outstanding natural environment in our National Parks, State Forests and Conservation areas, all of which are naturally beautiful and untouched.

The Council has prepared this guide to help you settle into our community and to showcase the range of resources and opportunities we have on our doorstep.

I trust it will not take long for the new to become familiar, and for acquaintances to become friends, here in Cessnock City.

There is a wonderful spirit of cooperation and a strong sense of community in Cessnock that I have not experienced elsewhere.

It's an exciting time to be living in the Cessnock LGA, with the opening of the Hunter Expressway expanding our connections to major cities and services. As Mayor, I am committed to fostering an open and consultative council that will further facilitate the sustainable development of our City.

Cessnock City Mayor
Councillor Bob Pynsent

YOUR COUNCIL

COUNCIL MEETINGS, BUSINESS PAPERS AND MINUTES

Council Meetings are held on the first and third Wednesday of each month and are generally open to the public.

The meetings deal with, but are not limited to, Mayoral minutes, matters referred from previous Council and Committee meetings, reports of the General Manager, adoption of minutes of Standing Committees, mediation reports, notices of motion, matters for information, general business and confidential reports.

Before each Council meeting, a Business Paper is prepared detailing the items to be presented to the Council.

Readers should be aware that the Recommendations and Notices of Motion set out in the Council Business Paper are simply proposals to the Council for its consideration. The Council may adopt these proposals, amend the proposals, determine a completely different course of action, or it may decline to pursue any course of action.

The decision of the Council becomes a resolution and is recorded in the Council Minutes. Readers are referred to this separate document. The Council Business Paper and the Council Minutes are linked by the common Item Numbers and Titles. Audio recordings of Council meetings are also made available on Council's website.

Business Papers are available for inspection at Council's Admin Building and Libraries on the Friday afternoon before the meeting and published on Council's website.

LIVE

Beautiful countryside, clean air and vibrant communities are just some of the reasons more and more people are making the move to live in the Cessnock LGA.

Our region is surrounded by peaceful bushland and breathtaking mountain views and as a Council we pride ourselves on maintaining the health of our natural environment so our community can enjoy it for years to come.

You can lead a very relaxed lifestyle living in our region, but also enjoy our vibrant culture within our towns and villages including great shopping, dining and huge range of experiences at your fingertips.

For families moving to the area, we offer a number of fantastic childcare centres and have 28 schools to choose from, so you're sure to find one to suit your needs.

We're also lucky to have top notch health services available including two hospitals, a wide range of medical practitioners, community health services, aged care and numerous other support services.

Council works hard to ensure our region continues to be a great place to live and provides our community with a range of services. These include the maintenance of parks, gardens and sporting fields, the provision of libraries and the entertainment centre, waste management, maintenance of roads, bridges, footpaths and more.

LIFESTYLE

STRIKE A BALANCE

The Cessnock LGA offers a relaxed, rural lifestyle, but there are also plenty of business opportunities, along with things to keep you and your family entertained during your downtime!

SCHOOLS

Offering plenty of parks, playgrounds, a variety of sporting facilities, great libraries and entertainment options, the Cessnock LGA is the perfect place to bring up a family. Picking the right school for your child is important for every family and with 28 schools in our LGA you're sure to find the right fit. For more information on what schools are available, check out the community directory on Council's website.

PETS AND ANIMALS

We understand pets are part of the family and bring so much happiness, but they can also take a lot of responsibility.

It's important to make sure you take your pet to the vet regularly and ensure they're registered and microchipped so they can be easily returned if they decide to take an unplanned adventure in their new home.

We are also a very dog-friendly region, offering a number of leash-free parks to take your furry friends.

For more information on these parks and everything you need to know about owning a pet, visit Council's website.

ACCESS & INCLUSION

Council is committed to responding to the needs of people with disability living in and visiting the Cessnock LGA, improving accessibility and inclusion for all.

Our Disability Inclusion Action Plan 2017-2021 was developed with the support of the community and lists actions that improve Council's infrastructure, communications, business systems and services for people with disability.

People with disability can apply for a Master Locksmiths Association Key (MLAK) which will give access to local public amenities and facilities.

For more information about access and inclusion, visit Council's website.

RECONCILIATION ACTION PLAN

With the completion of Council's first Reconciliation Action Plan called the 'Reflect Plan', Council, with encouragement and support from the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Committee, has developed its second Reconciliation Action Plan, called the Innovate Plan.

The Innovate Plan demonstrates Council's commitment to reconciliation through implementing actions that raise awareness within the organisation and wider community of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture and strengthen community relationships. The Innovate Plan's vision for reconciliation is to build unity and respect between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and other Australians.

To find out more, visit Council's website.

OUR ENVIRONMENT

You can make a positive contribution to the environment and sustainability by the way in which you live, even if you don't have the time or inclination to become a volunteer.

It's easy to make a difference; recycling, controlling weeds, minimizing your electricity and water use, maintaining your swimming pool properly and looking after your septic system.

Council is actively involved in a broad range of environmental areas to maintain the health of both our natural and built environments and also the health of the people who choose to live here.

For more information, visit Council's website.

The Cessnock LGA is an attractive, thriving and welcoming region which continues to grow and develop each and every year.

The Hunter Regional Plan outlined Council would have a projected increase in dwelling approvals of 6,350 between 2016 and 2036 which averages 318 applications per year. This figure was more than doubled in the 2018/19 financial year, with 689 dwellings approved. The boom is set to continue with ongoing growth in new release areas including Huntlee and Cliftleigh.

During this period of rapid growth, Council is striving to achieve the right balance between protecting the environment, supporting a healthy local economy and providing our community with affordable and effective access to community services and infrastructure.

Council's Economic Development Unit (EDU) works hard to support and increase opportunities for local businesses to thrive by expanding our region's exposure and advocating for issues affecting the socio-economic sphere.

The Cessnock LGA is home to Hunter Valley Wine Country, which is one of the top wine tourism destinations in Australia. Our region welcomes 1.5 million visitors per year and tourism is the largest employer, with the potential to grow further.

While tourism is the largest employer, we have a diverse range of economic activities including mining, manufacturing, construction, agribusiness, resource recycling and more.

Council will continue to support the growth of our wonderful region and looks forward to welcoming more and more people to Cessnock City.

PLAN & BUILD

PLANNING ON BUILDING?

If you're planning to carry out building and development works within the Cessnock LGA, you will generally need consent from Council before you begin.

There are certain types of development that don't require consent and these works are referred to as 'exempt' development. It's best to check with Council though, as the criteria for this can be found in a range of development controls and fines can apply if you don't comply.

There is lots of useful information on Council's website, including an overview of the development approval process.

WHAT CAN I DO WITH MY LAND?

Depending on what you'd like to do, changing the use of your land may require a change in the zone that applies to the land. This will depend on whether the proposed use is permissible or prohibited under the zone.

Decisions about development in the Cessnock LGA is influenced by state and local planning legislation, strategies and policies.

If you have any questions, Council's Strategic Land Use Planners are available to answer enquiries concerning land use permissibility and strategic planning matters.

WE'RE HERE TO HELP!

We understand the process of building your dream home can be a little daunting, but the dedicated team at Council are on hand to help with the process.
